MAYBE MEDIATION CAN HELP

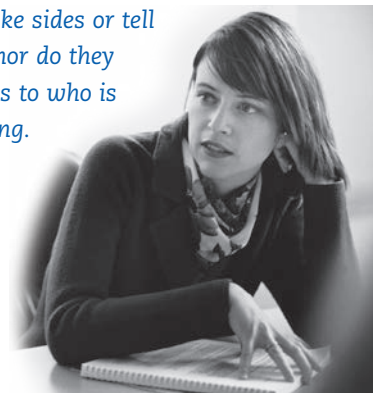

Mediation helps people in conflict

Mediators...

- Listen to what you have to say.
- Help clear up misunderstandings.
- Help people understand how it feels.
- Help people look at what's fair.
- Help people work out an agreement about the future that everyone is happy with.

Mediators do not take sides or tell people what to do, nor do they make judgements as to who is right or who is wrong.

Why mediation for families?

Conflict within families can cause a lot of pain and upset.

Pressures of modern life turn disagreements into battles with the result that no one feels safe or heard or understood.

Mediators can help families repair the damage and plan for the future.

Mediators can help families talk to one another again.
